NEW PROGRAM AND COMMUNICATIONS MANAGER JOINS THE LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE – WOMEN WITH PURPOSE TEAM

INDIANAPOLIS, IND. – As The Leadership Institute – Women with Purpose (The LI) continues to grow, the organization has gained Emily Just as its new Program and Communications Manager, who joined the team January 16, 2012.

“We are thrilled to have Emily join our team as the Program and Communications Manager,” said Erin Correa, The LI’s Executive Director. “She brings with her a tremendous passion for women’s leadership development and the work of The LI.”

Just has a variety of training experiences as an instructional designer and facilitator that make her a perfect fit for the role of Program and Communications Manager. In addition, Emily is a member and volunteer for Alpha Sigma Alpha Sorority and the experiences she has gained through her membership in that organization will be incredibly valuable to her role at The LI.

"I am beyond excited to join The LI team. I can't think of a better place to jump into the fun, challenging and rewarding work of helping women learn new skills to reach their full potential," says Just.

Prior to starting her work at The LI, Emily coordinated health promotion and social media research at the University of Louisville School of Public Health and Information Science. In addition, Emily has previously served as a contract instructional designer for The LI, assisting in writing a variety of leadership competency based training programs for women throughout the United States.

Emily has volunteered for the fraternity and sorority community for five years, conducting leadership and educational training with chapters across the country. Emily graduated from Murray State University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in biology and Spanish and received her Master's degree in health promotion from the National University of Ireland-Galway.

As the Program and Communications Manager of The Leadership Institute-Women with Purpose (The LI), Emily is responsible for coordinating the development and delivery of the LI training programs, as well as managing the volunteer program and executing all marketing strategies.
